QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS NO.1

ISSUED ON: August 2, 2019

Q1	Regarding the documents which must be submitted with the application. Can we also use the ICBC vehicle registration as proof of the legal ownership of the trucks?
A1	No. The ICBC registration alone cannot be used as sole document for Proof of Ownership. Proof of Ownership is established with the listed item below that are identified in RFA Section: 1.0 DOCUMENTS WHICH MUST BE ATTACHED TO THIS APPLICATION FORM <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• ICBC Vehicle Registration/Liability Insurance Document ($5,000,000.00 Third Party Liability Coverage)</li> <li>• Proof of GST Registration</li> <li>• Certificate of Incorporation (Where Truck Owner is a Corporation)</li> <li>• Registrar of Companies Search Print-Out</li> </ul> (Attach photocopy of current computer search print out from Register of Companies showing that company has been duly incorporated and is in good standing with the British Columbia Registrar of Companies) If the Vendor is unable to provide all required documents by Closing Date please identify which and when those documents will be submitted for follow-up.
Q2	Are the Hourly Rates listed under page 21 Appendix B TRUCKING/HAULAGE SERVICES CONTRACT Section 2.1.1 inclusive of the driver fees?
A2	No. Trucking/Hauling Service rates provided would need to include equipment with operator.
Q3	We also have a fleet of Box Trucks of various sizes, should we include them in our submittal?
